BALLOT BOXES.

The Tales Told by Tickets in Nine States.

LATEST RETURNS FROM YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS.

Comments of the New York Press To-day.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 5.—The returns at this hour show a crushing defeat for Tammany, with the exception of three Senators, two or three Assemblymen and about six Aldermen. They have lost all the county officers. Anti-Tammany has elected the Sheriff, County Clerk, several members of the Assembly and two Coroners. The rest of the ticket has fallen to the Republicans. Robinson's majority over Cornell in the city is about 16,000. The returns indicate Kelly's vote at about 40,000; Robinson, 52,000. Cornell leads Kelly only 3,000. Potter's majority in the city reaches 45,000.

ROBINSON FEELS COMPOSED.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Herald Albany special says: Governor Robinson received the news of the election with entire composure. While he had expected a different result in his own case his personal comfort would be greatly promoted by a different result.

He had unhesitatingly desired to resume private life. He would not deny that, so far as he regarded himself as the representative of the cause, he earnestly desired that the cause should win.

PENNSYLVANIA.

A BUTLER WHO WAS ELECTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The election passed off very quietly. There was only one office on the State ticket to be filled, that of State Treasurer. The candidates were Saul Butler, Republican; D. O. Barr, Democrat; Peter Sutton, Greenback; W. L. Richardson, Prohibitionist. The returns indicate that the vote throughout the State was small. The Greenback vote is very light, and the Prohibitionist vote trifling. Butler carries the State by an estimated majority of 45,000. There was no interest manifested in the State ticket in this city, and the only contest was in the county ticket. The city vote is largely Republican, and the majority is estimated at 80,000.

MASSACHUSETTS.

GENERAL BUTLER DEFEATED.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Returns from 303 of 334 cities and towns give Long 118,799 and Butler 107,074. Adams will hardly get 10,000 votes, and Eddy, Prohibitionist, about 2,000. The remaining 31 towns yet to be heard from will not materially alter the figures. Long's vote will probably reach 120,000, and Butler's nearly 110,000. The Republicans have elected their entire State ticket and carried both branches of the Legislature by a majority about the same as last year. If there is any change, it is in favor of the Democrats, who have apparently made a few gains.

VIRGINIA.

DEBT PAYERS PROBABLY VICTORIOUS.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—Regular election took place yesterday throughout the State for members of the General Assembly. In this city all passed off quietly. About 1,500 votes polled. No opposition to regular Debt-payers' ticket, and all candidates elected. The Debt-payers had a walk over. They claim they will have sixty members out of one hundred and ten in the House, and twenty-four out of twenty-seven in the Senate. General Fitz Lee is probably defeated for the House in the Stafford District. The Road-jesters carried Norfolk, Portsmouth, Nanaimond and Petersburg, and claim they will have a majority on joint ballot. This is, however, doubtful, and the Debt-payers claim to have won all they expected. The indications are that Johnson, Readjuster, is re-elected, and B. Johnson, Burhoun, Debt-payer, is by elected 450 majority.

MARYLAND.

RETURNS COMING IN SLOWLY.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—It is impossible to give full returns of the city vote as there is great delay in counting. Baltimore will give about 10,000 majority for Hamilton, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and he is certainly elected. The returns from the interior of the State are coming in slowly. Allegany County gives a majority of 150 for the Democratic State ticket, a Republican gain of 476. The Legislative ticket can not be counted to-night. Washington County will probably give a Democratic majority of 900 on the gubernatorial ticket and about the same on the Legislative. Official returns from 23 precincts in Baltimore give Hamilton, Democratic candidate for Governor, 2,762 majority.

NEBRASKA.

SUCH SCRATCHING NEVER WAS SEEN.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 5.—The election returns come in slowly and no definite result can be yet given. The Republicans have probably carried the State by the usual majority. In Douglas County the Democrats have probably elected almost the entire ticket. They also elect a Judge in the Third Judicial District. The amount of scratching done has never been equaled.

OMAHA, Nov. 5.—Birth of new, Democratic County Judge, is re-elected. Anas Cobb, Supreme Judge, and J. W. Gannett, Regent of the State University, received the usual Republican majority, about 12,000 throughout the State. The vote of the State is about 60,000.

MISSISSIPPI.

OUR COUNTY GOES GREENBACK.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 5.—The election here yesterday was very quiet, and a small vote was polled. The returns came in very slowly and the result is not known, but the Democrats will carry the State with the exception, perhaps, of a few counties. Pike County will probably elect a greater part of the Greenback ticket.

CONNECTICUT.

THE LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 5.—The Republicans have elected ten out of eleven Senators. The next Senate will stand sixteen Republicans and five Democrats. The Legislature is largely Republican.

MINNESOTA.

AN EXTREMELY LIGHT VOTE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Returns from over 100 points, including several nearly complete Counties, indicate that the Republican nominees are elected by good majorities. The vote was extremely light in almost every County and attributed to the absence of legislative tickets, and in nearly every case even of the County ticket. Both Pillsbury, for Governor, and Gilman, for Lieutenant Governor, run behind the tickets slightly. Pillsbury's majority two years ago was 18,000.

WISCONSIN.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—130 towns and cities, including Milwaukee, show a net Republican gain of 8,667. Gov. Smith's majority is 22,000. The Senate and Assembly are largely Republican.

OPINIONS OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

THE TRIBUNE SUMMARIZES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Tribune this morning summarizes the results of the elections yesterday as follows: The Republicans carried all the so-called doubtful States by sure majorities. In New York they have elected Cornell by a plurality of 35,000, and probably the rest of the State ticket by from 5,000 to 10,000. They have also secured a large majority in both branches of the Legislature.

In Massachusetts they repeated their defeat of Butler, and elected Long Governor by a plurality ranging from 13,000 to 15,000. They have an overwhelming majority in the Legislature.

In Pennsylvania the Republicans rolled up an enormous majority of 50,000. Wisconsin has gone Republican by 20,000 majority, which may rise to 30,000. Connecticut has elected a Legislature which shows a Republican majority of 93 on joint ballot against a Republican majority of 40 last year.

In New Jersey the Republicans gained 8 Assemblymen and 1 Senator in the Counties heard from.

Nebraska has gone Republican by 12,000. Returns from Virginia are rather indefinite, but the Debt-paying party is hopeful. It has carried the Legislature.

There was a good deal of scratching in Minnesota, but the Republicans carried the State by 30,000 majority.

Wisconsin had a quiet election and was solid for the Democrats. The future belongs to the Republican party. Only by some new act, folly or faithlessness can it forfeit that public confidence which the elections reveal. The election in this State disposes of Tilden's effort to kill off John Kelly. He is a bigger power to-day in the Democratic party of New York than on any previous day of his political life. He can now dictate his terms henceforth to local politics, and within the close corporation of the Democratic machine, Kelly is a bigger man than Tilden.

THUS THE TIMES TALKS.

The Times (Republican) says the day was one of great victories. Eight States were carried by the Republicans, and only three States carried by the Democrats. New York gives Cornell 43,000 plurality, and elects Democrats to the minor State offices. The Republicans elect 25 Senators and 88 Assemblymen; the Democrats 7 Senators and 40 Assemblymen. There is very little doubt now that every Northern State, with the possible exception of Indiana, may be considered as safe for the Republicans in the Presidential election next year. The effects of the Kelly vote in this State on the political prospects of Tilden, ought to be fatal.

Henceforth no intelligent person will mention Tilden seriously as a possible candidate for the Presidency.

THE STAR SCINTILLATES.

The Star says: Tammany gained a substantial victory at the polls. Cornell is elected Governor by 50,000 plurality. Tildenism and Robinson have been cut out of the Democratic party. The vote polled for Potter and the other Democratic nominees for State offices clearly proves that New York State still retains its place in the Democratic column. With a purified, united party we can now march forward to an assured triumph in 1880.

WHAT THE SUN SAYS.

The Sun in its 6 a. m. extra this morning says: Cornell has a plurality of over 25,000 votes. Potter and the rest of the Democratic ticket are perhaps elected. Kelly polled a much larger vote than was expected. Reports from Westchester County indicate the probable defeat of Judge Robertson for State Senator.

In all the Northern States heavy Republican gains are reported. In Virginia the result between the so-called Republicans and those in favor of funding the State debt is very doubtful. Probably the Republicans hold the balance of power in Connecticut. The election of a Republican to succeed U. S. Senator Eaton is assured, as is also the election of a Republican to succeed Randolph of New Jersey, in the U. S. Senate. The Republicans will have a two-thirds majority in the New York Legislature.

Stopping a Duel.

A spirited woman put an end to a duel near Berlin three weeks ago. Principals, seconds, and an army surgeon were on the ground and the pistols were loading, when the lady suddenly drove up in a swift droschky to the place of meeting, stepped up to her husband's second, snatched a pistol from his hand, and directing its muzzle toward her bosom, declared that she would kill herself unless the projected duel were at once given up. The whole party returned peaceably to Berlin.

The Darlington (S. C.) News takes note of the improved condition of the colored people in that county. It says that nearly all of them own horses and cows, and many of them own land, and that some of the land owners no longer depend on them, but work their lands with their own money, and pay for their provisions in cash. Their moral as well as their pecuniary condition is improved. There is less stealing, churches are numerous and well supported, and newspapers and periodicals are liberally patronized.

A new and singular means of incendiarism is reported by the Golas. In a village of Poland a cat was saturated with kerosene by an unknown party and set on fire; the unhappy animal rushed furiously to and fro, spreading fire all around, till it perished in flames, together with a number of buildings.

RESIGNATION OF THE MINISTRY.

National Associated Press to the Star.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.—The first meeting of the Bulgarian Assembly from the moment of its organization manifested a stormy and discordant sentiment, and the result has been that the ministry has now resigned. They had prepared a number of bills relating to the internal administration of the country, but what is termed The Great Bulgarian Question threatens to throw everything into confusion, and the resignation of the Ministry has left affairs in a more critical condition than they were at the pending of the session.

Austria.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE A MAJOR.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.—Much excitement has been caused here by the reception of a dispatch stating that a body of concealed assassins at Riva Tyrol fired at an Austrian Major who was passing through the valley, with cries of hatred and revenge against Austria. The officer escaped uninjured, but the incident is regarded of importance at Vienna, as showing the irritated temper of the Italian provinces which are still held by the Austrian Government.

Great Britain.

LA BOUCHERE GRANTED HIS MANDAMUS.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—LaBouchere has succeeded in compelling the Magistrate at Guild Hall to reverse the decision he made the other day, cutting off the examination which LaBouchere proposed to continue in his defense against the suit of Lawson Levy. On application of LaBouchere the Queen's Bench has granted a rule nisi for a mandamus to compel the Magistrate at Guild Hall to hear the cross examination of Lawson by LaBouchere. The case continues to excite much excitement in journalistic and social circles in London, and for the lovers of scandal it now promises to be more interesting than ever.

LION AND BEAR LIE DOWN TOGETHER.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—C considerable excitement has been created here to-day by the reception of information from St. Petersburg to the effect that the English Ambassador there has submitted to Prince Gortschakoff a carefully matured scheme for a mutual understanding between England and Russia. According to a semi-official dispatch from St. Petersburg this morning the relations between the two countries are said to be altogether cordial.

Belgium.

RECOVERY OF CARLOTTA'S REASON.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 5.—A surprising improvement has taken place in the mental condition of the Empress Charlotte, widow of Emperor Maximilian, who was slain in Mexico. Her mental faculties, which had been so long deranged, appear to have been almost miraculously restored. She converses with perfect lucidity, her memory has returned, and the long night of oblivion and insanity which has overshadowed her seems to have given away to a return of reason and memory.

She was shown to the department where Johnson was employed, she shook hands with Johnson and after a few moments conversation left, followed in about an hour by Johnson, who informed his employers that he had to leave. Johnson left the store but did not go home to his wife until the evening, when he told her to pack his valise, as he intended leaving. He refused to say why or where he was going. The valise was packed, and when he left Mrs. Johnson followed him as far as Third and Vine streets, where she lost sight of him, it then being dark. Since then nothing has been heard from him at all.
